

For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

2 Timothy 1:7

While we are going through some pretty challenging times, I want to remind you that the Lord is still on the throne. As things change from day to day I want to assure you of my desire to continue ministering to you through this time. Your spiritual health is as important to me as your physical health. For this reason I would like to explain some changes for the weeks ahead.

Due to a “shelter at home” order in our county, all midweek studies at the church will be put on hold.

We will be doing Sunday morning service on FB Live and the audio message will be available on our website shortly after Sunday mornings.

If you would like to continue giving your tithes and offering, please do so by mailing a check to the church address. There’s also a way to give on our website.

If you have any personal spiritual or practical needs, please do not hesitate to call or email me at matt@cambriacalvary.org

I will do my best to be as available as possible, keeping your health and safety in mind of course. May Jesus continue to bless you abundantly and preserve you with His amazing grace and peace!

It is still all about JESUS!

Pastor Matt
